NARRATIVE:

Juan Mejia is a documented gang member with an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. His convictions include attempted robbery, battery, battery with injury on a peace officer, possession of dangerous weapons, multiple convictions for domestic violence with injury, burglary, vandalism, disturbing the peace, possession of burglary tools, trespassing, possession of controlled substances and failing to report. He has served multiple prison terms the longest being 9 year term for domestic violence with injury. Mejia was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on November 30, 2014. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in January 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Mejia qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for burglary is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
